

Shop Assistant

Do you enjoy working in a shop and selling creative products?
Would you like to sell products and help support Cambodian children, youth and families? Then join us!

You will be joining Mith Samlanh team that counts 300 professionals working together to provide innovative social service to children, youth and families.

One of our projects is working on training families to make all kinds of products and sell them, so that they can support their children. We support those families by selling products in our shops.

What will you do?

As a Shop Assistant you will be directly dealing with customers from all over the world to presenting them with products from our internationally standardized shop that we call Friends 'n' Stuff.

Your responsibilities as a Shop Assistant will be to:

- Greet the customers and provide them with assistance in choosing the right product
- Support the team in checking the quality of our products
- Ensure we have enough products in the stock
- Make our shop attractive by regularly re-arranging the displays
- Ensure sales numbers are correct and transparent

We would like you to have the following:

- Friendly attitude and excellent customer service skills
- Ability to communicate well in Khmer and English with our international customers
- Passion for supporting marginalized children, youth, families and communities
- Experience in managing stocks and keeping them neat and tidy
- You are good with computers and can use Internet

You will be based at Phnom Penh
