

Hello from Mith Samlanh We're looking for a Cooking Trainer

Do you like to cook and teach students? Up for a challenge? Excited about daily oversight and running of the canteen and supervising/ training of all students? Would you like to join our teams and partners in building a better future for marginalized children, youth and families?

If you answered 'yes' to any of the above, then you may just be the person we need.

WE ARE

Mith Samlanh was founded in Phnom Penh in 1994. Our vision is together, we protect marginalized children and youth, their families and communities and with them create innovative and exciting opportunities to build their futures. This is done through our Saving Lives, Building Futures and ChildSafe programs, which cover a great variety of carefully integrated projects, including child protection, migration, harm reduction, education, alternative care, vocational training, social businesses, employment, NGO networks and more!

THE ROLE

As a Cooking Trainer, you will be joining our team, which is currently expanding. To oversee and run the canteen, supervise/train and provide mobile training in the community for all students.

Does this describe you?

- You are passionate about sharing cooking skills with others
- You have good training skills
- You are well managed on the cleanliness of the kitchen, food and tools
- You can travel to the community for mobile training

These would be examples of some of your responsibilities. Would you enjoy them?

- Provide training on cooking skills to students
- Ensure the kitchen is run in accordance with standards
- Ensure food wastage is at a minimum
- Ensuring all students are present, properly dressed, and groomed
- Hygiene, health and safety are up to standards
