

#everydayheroes #ThinkFamilies #weareChildSafe #ngo #socent #recruitment #jobs #employment #youth #training #softskills #personaldevelopment #entrepreneurship #selfemployment

HELLO from Friends

We are looking for someone to fill in an

EMPLOYMENT TRAINER POSITION

Do you feel stuck in a routine job? Up for a challenge? Excited about supporting youth and adults to prepare for their first job or for running their own business?

If you answered 'yeah' to any of the above then you may just be the person we are looking for.

Would you enjoy these responsibilities?

- Providing soft skills training to youth and adults, as well as providing coaching support
- Preparing people to find a job and become successful at their work through fun and creative activities
- Supporting young people and adults to start and grow their businesses
- Linking with schools, universities, communities etc. in order to promote opportunities for learning
- Partnering with companies and government agencies

We are changing the way support is provided to people by giving them the resources, training and mentoring so that they can be more successful in finding a job or running their business. You will be working with a diverse group of people such as high-school and uni students, fresh graduates, adults looking for or changing jobs, professionals looking to improve their skills and people starting or running their business. This is your opportunity to support learning on a range of exciting topics such as communications, team work, creativity and entrepreneurship. While being based in Phnom Penh you'll also be working together with more than 300 multicultural Friends' team members and partners across Southeast Asia.

Sounds good? Splendid! Please email your CV and Cover letter now to hr@mithsamlanh.org and let's talk more.

All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.