

We are looking for a HOSPITALITY TRAINING BUSINESS COORDINATOR HELLO FROM FRIENDS

Are you feeling bored with the usual hospitality management work?
Up for a challenge? Interested in seeing how a restaurant can also train young people and support them in building their future?

If you answered 'yes' then you may just be the person we need.

What about these? Think you'd fit?

- You have management experience in hospitality business run by international standards
- You are confident in managing people and coordinating work with multiple teams
- You enjoy supporting others to learn new knowledge and gain technical skills
- You're skilled in networking and creating business opportunities
- You are excited to support and mentor young people who are at the start of their hospitality career
- You are fluent in both English and Khmer language

Friends currently runs 2 unique training restaurants (Friends the Restaurant and Romdeng) and 1 Let's Eat! shop in the heart of Phnom Penh. By offering a variety of creative dishes to customers they also provide an opportunity for people to learn cooking and service skills. Our team is looking to hire someone experienced in hospitality management to work closely with Phnom Penh's restaurant teams (60+ people) and support them in providing a superb training to "hungry for knowledge" students as well as international standard service to "hungry for food" visitors.

You'll be involved in projects such as training curriculum design, marketing campaigns, health and safety standards as well as directly providing training to students on how to properly serve delicious food from all over the world!
We'd love to hear from cooking professionals in Cambodia!

Sounds good? Awesome! Please email your CV with a cover letter and salary expectations to hr@mitsamlanh.org and let's talk more. All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child Protection Policy.
