COMPUTER TEACHER

HELLO FROM MITH SAMLANH

Are you looking to start your career in computer teaching in a dynamic working place? Do you enjoy learning new things and are you up for a challenge? Would you like to transfer your computer knowledge to youth so that they have better ability to access a job?

If you answered 'yes' then you may just be the person we need. What about these? Think you'd fit?

- You have basic skills in fixing up a PC or a laptop
- You have good knowledge of Microsoft offices
- You are well organized and you enjoy in teaching and working with community youth
- You have ability to work independently under minimal supervision
- You enjoy a busy working environment that can improve your knowledge and skill
- You have a strong commitment to work in building futures for children, youth, their families and their communities

YES? Then what are you waiting for!

We would like to give an opportunity to someone who is a fresh graduate and as well as has some working experience to join our team and provide basic knowledge of Microsoft offices to our communities youth! This position is for someone who is looking for a long-term commitment. You will be working within a multicultural and diverse team consisted of more than 200 #EverydayHeroes.

Sounds good? AWESOME! Please email your CV now hr@mithsamlanh.org and let's talk more. All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.
