FINANCE OFFICER

HELLO FROM MITH SAMLANH

Are you looking for new finance job opportunity? Looking for a meaningful finance role that is rewarding and fulfilling? Would you like to use your skills in supporting our teams to save lives and build futures of children & youth?

If you answered 'yes' to any of the above, then you may just be the person we need. Have a look and see if you're a good fit!

- You're experienced in NGO accounting, finance systems, QuickBooks, and financial reporting
- You can manage budgets, forecasts, and variance analysis
- You're knowledgeable about working with institutional donors such as ADB, UNICEF, EU, DFID, Global Fund international fund agency, etc
- You're excited to support project managers in finance policy and procedures implementation
- You have ability to prioritize task and work independently
- You have highly developed cultural awareness and ability to work well with people from diverse backgrounds and cultures
- You are good at problem-solving
- Your English is very good, and you can't wait to work with other finance

YES? Then what are you waiting for!

Our finance team is expanding, and we are looking for new team members with diverse finance background. You will work together with other finance to ensure a smooth running of finance department and operation. This includes providing training, coaching and support to our staff on financial policy and procedures, compiling financial reports, maintaining the integrity of finance systems, and internal controls. You would be working alongside an international and multidisciplinary team ensuring high level of accuracy and transparency in our financial systems. We'd love to hear from someone who has already proven themselves in the finance area and who is willing to gain new experiences!

Sounds good? Awesome! Please email your CV now hr@mithsamlanh.org and let's talk more. All applicants will undergo an extensive background check in compliance with our Child/Beneficiary Protection Policy and PSEA Policy.
